It needed three new tires, and after driving it back to the shop, it was parked. The next day it would not start and only clicks when attempting to crank. The battery has been tested and is good. This vehicle is being sold as a mechanic special. We have not diagnosed the issue further. Retail value is approximately $22,000. If you're a mechanic, shop owner, or someone looking for a great project, this could be an excellent opportunity to save thousands. Trades are welcome.
